MAXINE BLACKMER EXHIBITS
JEWELRY IN RICHLAND, WASH.

MISSOULA--

Maxine Blackmer, an assistant professor of art at the University of Montana, is exhibiting several gold and silver jewelry pieces at an invitational art show at the Jaid Gallery, Richland, Wash.

The show continues through the month of December.

Mrs. Blackmer teaches courses in ceramics, jewelry design and drawing at UM.

She came to UM as a graduate assistant in 1959 from the Missoula County High School where she was an instructor in art. Prior to that she was an instructor at Helena High School.

Mrs. Blackmer received her master's degree from UM in 1960 and a B.S. degree from the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, in 1937. She is a native of Austin, Minn.
